Erie, Pennsylvania: The Flagship City

A flagship is generally known as the ship in a fleet that flies the commander's flag. Here in Erie we are known by many names, and among them: The Flagship City. This name is derived from Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry's flagship during the Battle of Lake Erie in the War of 1812, the U.S. Brig Niagara, and the flag he famously flew from that ship which read: "Don't Give Up the Ship."

Our downtown is in the midst of an exciting renaissance with new buildings, businesses, and public art popping up regularly to help make Erie a vibrant, exciting, interesting place to visit.

And we most certainly have not. Here in Erie, like many other American cities, times have changed, industry has moved on, businesses open and close, but through it all we have not lost sight of what makes Erie special. Our downtown is in the midst of an exciting renaissance with new buildings, businesses, and public art popping up regularly to help make Erie a vibrant, exciting, interesting place to visit.

The word flagship is also defined as "the finest or most important one of a group of things," and we like to think both definitions apply to our city - in particular to our standout natural geographic feature Presque Isle, which represents the finest we have to offer. Not only does it boast the third-best sunsets IN THE WORLD, but also miles of sandy beaches, acres of wilderness providing a home to hundreds of native species of flora and fauna, and convenient and well-planned multi-use trails—all of which go into making a visit to the peninsula worth the trip.

Our finery certainly doesn't stop at Presque Isle, and within this guide you will find a fleet of activities, restaurants, parks, attractions, festivals, and entertainment to have you flying our flag and joining the brigade of proud Erieites in emphasizing that we have not given up our ship, our pride and joy, our Flagship City.

How to Use This Guide

An annual tradition instituted in 2014 by the Erie Reader – Erie's only independent, locally-owned alternative newspaper – Best of Erie polls Erieites on their favorite people and places, cultural and nightlife activities, and food and drink options, with over 100 categories to voice their opinions. Both nominations and voting are open to the public, making the year-end list a genuinely crowd-sourced product.

Over 500,000 votes were cast for the 2022 Best of Erie awards and those results form the foundation of this 2023-24 Best of Erie City Guide, a locally and publicly curated guidebook to all the best to eat, drink, see, and do in Erie, PA. As you flip through these pages, look for the icons indicated in the legend as a starting point for your explorations. They'll definitely show you the best Erie has to offer.

Best Sunset Spots

Many say Erie has some of the most spectacular sunsets in the world. With the stunning backdrop of Lake Erie and miles of shoreline, Erie sunsets set the perfect scene for romantic proposals, friendly gatherings, or a place for quiet reflection after a long day.

Bayview Park

Set in the popular West Bayfront neighborhood, Bayview Park offers a sunset view from a higher perspective. Sitting on the bluff overlooking Presque Isle Bay, the park features a 10-foot-wide, 5-foot-high, 500-pound steel “Erie” sign. This spot is perfect for photo ops and a walk along the trails or relaxing on the giant swings. The park also has a splash pad, playground, picnic pavilions, a baseball field, and basketball courts.
592 W. 2nd St.

Presque Isle State Park

Framed by beautiful sandy beaches and Lake Erie, Presque Isle is a peaceful place to watch the sun go down. Although pretty much anywhere along the beach is a good spot, the appropriately named Sunset Point beach is the most photogenic. Sunset Point is located between Beaches 9 and 10. Other great points of view can be found on the Lighthouse Beach, Waterworks (Beach 7), or Pettinato (Beach 8) areas.
301 Peninsula Dr.

Waldameer Park's Ferris Wheel

Travel to the top of Waldameer Park's ferris wheel for breathtaking views of the sunset, Lake Erie, and the park's Ravine Flyer II coaster. The giant gondola wheel leisurely carries its riders to its maximum height of 100 feet, pausing long enough so you can snap a bunch of photos.

220 Peninsula Dr.

Shades Beach Park

It may be small, but what it lacks in size, it makes up for in viewing area. In addition to being a great sunset spot, it's a popular place to hang out with nature trails, picnic grounds, woodlands, play areas, and a boat launch.

Shades Beach Rd., Harborcreek

Sunset Cruises

Set sail on one of the many cruises available on Lake Erie waters. You can take a sunset tour aboard the Lady Kate, enjoy a fun night on the Victorian Princess, or take the entire family aboard Scallywags Pirate Adventures.

2 State St.

Waterfront Activities

As you've probably learned by now, Erie is perfectly situated on the gorgeous Great Lake of the same name. We've mentioned Presque Isle State Park's miles of sandy beaches—ideal for sunbathing, collecting beach glass, birdwatching, boating, biking, frisbee, and swimming. But there's plenty more to be discovered along our shores, and we invite you to explore.

Tom Ridge Environmental Center

Headquarters for the PA Department of Conservation of Natural Resources (DCNR), Tom Ridge Environmental Center (TREC) is a great place for visitors to stop and learn about our natural landscape, native species, birdwatch, or enjoy the natural playground. Take the steps or an elevator to the top of the tower for a bird's eye view of the lake and neighboring Waldameer. Then be sure to stop in the gift shop (Presque Isle Gallery and Gifts) for some locally made art and gifts.
301 Peninsula Dr.

The Maritime Museum and U.S. Brig Niagara

Get to know a little bit more about the history of Lake Erie, including but not limited to the Battle of Lake Erie in which Oliver Hazard Perry's flagship, the Brig Niagara sailed. Tours of the tall ship are included with the price of museum admission.
100 Blasco St.

Bicentennial Tower

Standing at the end of Dobbins Landing (once known simply as the Public Dock), the tower is an iconic point of reference for any Erieite. Travel to the top to take in one of the best views in Erie - tickets available from May to September, seven days a week from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.
1 State St.

Boating Adventures

Whether it's for a romantic getaway around the bay, for educational purposes, or just for some family fun, Erie is not lacking in options for getting out on the water. Enjoy a dinner cruise at sunset onboard the Victorian Princess, or an education in maritime history on the tall ships Brig Niagara or Lettie G. Howard or learn about the natural landscape of Presque Isle on the Lady Kate, or get soaked and silly on the pirate-themed adventure boat, The Scallywag.

Erie's Lighthouses

If you're visiting Presque Isle, you're likely aware of the Presque Isle Light Station that is open for tours all summer long. But Erie has two other lesser-known but just-as-impressive lighthouses, the Erie Land Lighthouse (which was the first lighthouse lit on the Great Lakes), and the North Pier Light.

Stop by all three for some photos and a great historic experience.

Presque Isle Light Station, Leslie Beach; Erie Land Lighthouse, 2 Lighthouse St.; North Pier Light, near Beach 11

Rent a Jet Ski or Boat

Get to know Lake Erie up close and personal by renting a jet ski, speed boat, canoe, or kayak for the day and traversing her shining waters yourself.

Port Erie Sports // 402 W. Bayfront Pkwy.; Presque Isle Boat Rental // Thompson Dr. on Presque Isle; Hidden Harbor Water Rentals // 12 E. Dobbins Landing

Waterfront Dining

When it comes to dining in the summertime, little beats a beautiful restaurant on the water. The sun setting, the gulls flying overhead, a boat off in the distance - it's idyllic, it's romantic, it's beautiful. It's Erie.

Oliver's Rooftop Restaurant and Beer Garden

Winner for Best Waterfront Dining, Best Patio, Best Romantic Restaurant, AND Best New Restaurant, Oliver's is the place to be if you'd like to dine on the waterfront in Erie. Check out the rooftop for upscale, fine dining with an incredible view, or make it more of a casual night in the beer garden while listening to some live music.
130 E. Front St.

Pier 6 Rooftop Bar and Grill

In combination with Bay House Oyster Bar, Pier 6 is a gorgeous spot for viewing the sunset while enjoying upscale casual dining with the freshest seafood around.
6 Sassafras Pier

Sloppy Duck Saloon

An Erie icon, Sloppy Duck has a spot for everyone: whether it's sitting on the back deck with a great Long Island iced tea and enjoying the bay view, inside by the bar with a burger, enjoying the view from the floor to ceiling windows, or on the front patio listening to some live music.

Lower State Street and Millionaires' Row Historic Walking Tour

You have caught us, here in Erie, in the midst of a renaissance. Our downtown and neighboring areas are going through a significant amount of renovation, restoration, rebuilding, and rebranding. While there are many parties at play, one major contributor to our refreshed look is the Historic Erie Preservation Trust (HEPT), helmed by our city's benefactor Thomas B. Hagen, as he has taken on a staggering number of historic properties in the Lower State Street and West Sixth Street corridors (generally referred to as Millionaires' Row) and given them a full top-to-bottom restoration. Many of these buildings sat in peril from years of deferred maintenance or otherwise faced demolition due to their desirable locations, but can now stand as a shining reminder of our city's history.

So take a walk with us and get a glimpse at the grand homes of Erie's past and note their remarkable restorations which will aid in their continuing contribution to Erie's future.

1. The Troy Sterrett Building 414-416 State St. Built in 1820

This was once the home of Erie's first newspaper man, Joseph Sterrett. Built in the Federal style, the oldest building on State Street has been recently restored by the HEPT.

2. The Cashier's House 417 State St. Built in 1839

Built in the Greek Revival style, this building was constructed to be the headquarters of a new bank in Erie and the home of its CEO or "Cashier" William Benson and family. It has been recently restored by the Erie Downtown Development Corporation and currently houses an upscale steakhouse, Bricks at the Cashier's House.

3. Old Public Library 27 S. Park Row. Built in 1899

This building, constructed in the Italian Renaissance style, served as the Erie County Public Library from 1899 until 1996 and is currently part of the Federal Courthouse complex.

4. Charles M. Reed Mansion 524 Peach St. Built in 1848

Grandson of one of Erie's founders, Charles M. Reed was one of Erie's wealthiest citizens and was a brigadier general in the Pennsylvania militia. In 1905, after the death of Charles's wife, the home became the Erie Club, which it remains to this day.

5. John Hill House 230 W. 6th St. Built in 1836

Unique in style and preservation, this home was built in a transitional style between Greek Revival and Italian Villa. Originally owned by P.S.V. Hamot (of hospital repute), John Hill was a renowned architect and contractor in Erie.

6. Downing Galbraith House 259 W. 6th St. Built in 1892

Richardsonian Romanesque in style, this immense structure was built at the request of J.F. Downing, a prominent business and civic leader, as a wedding gift for his daughter Winifred. This is now home to the Women's Club of Erie.

7. Alexander Jarecki House 305 W. 6th St. Built in 1913

Architecturally unique and taking influence from a number of styles, this period revival home was once the dwelling of Alexander Jarecki, whose family were prominent manufacturers in Erie. This home was recently restored by the HEPT.

8. Selden House 318 W. 6th St. Built in 1892

This home was constructed in the Victorian Eclectic style for the Selden sisters. The Selden family were prominent manufacturers who started (among others) Selden and Griswold Manufacturing (later known as Griswold Manufacturing), which made the famous cast iron cookware. This home was recently restored by the HEPT.

Downing-Galbraith House

9. Canalside Rowhouses

328-330 W. 6th St. Built in 1875

Built in the Second Empire Style (note the signature Mansard roof), these homes were built in the space where the Erie Canal would have flowed only a few years earlier. The canal was closed over in 1871. These homes were recently restored by the HEPT.

10. Wood Morrison House

338 W. 6th St. Built in 1849

This Italianate style house was once home to two pivotal people in Erie's history: Dr. William Wood, who was the first Surgeon General of the United States, and William Morrison, who was the last captain of the U.S.S. Michigan/Wolverine. This home was recently restored by the HEPT and is part of the Hagen History Center's campus. One can tour inside with the purchase of museum admission.

11. Watson Curtze Mansion

356 W. 6th St. Built in 1891

Two families (the Watsons and the Curtzes) lived in this mansion from 1891 to 1941, after which the building was donated to the people of Erie as a museum. The home was built by local manufacturer Harrison Watson (roofing and industrial supply). This building is now the home to the Hagen History Center and is open for tours.

12. Albert Scheidenhelm House

456 W. 6th St. Built in 1925

This Craftsman style house was designed by the same architects who designed the Old Public Library building (Alden & Harlow). Albert Scheidenhelm worked for the William Scott Coal Company and lived in the home until his death in 1960. This home was recently restored by the HEPT.

13. Julius Siegal House

459 W. 6th St. Built in 1906

This well preserved house was built in the Beaux Arts Classicism style by Julius Siegal, who was a partner with Erie Oil Works. This building (as well as what was known as a "barn" in the rear) is now home to the Erie Community Foundation.

14. Addison Leech House

462 W. 6th St. Built in 1872

Another great example of the Second Empire style of architecture, the namesake of the Addison Leech house was a real Renaissance man. Dabbling in farming, real estate, milling, civic duties, management, the Civil War major ultimately landed in the grain elevator business. This home was recently restored by the HEPT.

15. William Spencer House

519 W. 6th St. Built in 1876

This home was built by prominent Erie banker Judah Colt Spencer for his son William in 1876. It is a great example of Stick Style architecture, and has been well preserved. Note the roof cresting, decorative exterior woodwork, and brickwork. This building is currently a bed and breakfast.

16. Jarecki Collins House

620 W. 6th St. Built in 1923

Right across the street from Erie's first planned subdivision in Garden Court, this home was built as a wedding present for Alexander Jarecki's daughter and is a great example of Tudor Revival architecture. This home is currently a private residence and was recently restored by the HEPT.

We would like to thank Preservation Erie for providing the historical information on the properties listed. They are a non-profit dedicated to preserving the built history of Erie and can be found at preservationerie.org

Local Eats

The best part of visiting any city or town is getting to know that place through the food they offer. Erie is certainly no different and our culinary personality is on full display in the smattering of local award-winning restaurants featured herein. Our regional fare runs the gamut from fine dining to good old, sloppy, smoky barbecue, and spans locales from Downtown Erie, the waterfront, and throughout the city and county - wherever you are, you'll find something delicious waiting for you around the corner.

Bro-Man's Sammiches 🍷

Starting out as a food truck, Erieites quickly realized that Bro-Man's was onto something. They've since expanded to include a brick and mortar restaurant to serve their unapologetically sloppy, undeniably delicious burgers and birria. Bro-Man's sammiches are finger-licking, arm-dripping good, and actually award-winning. 8228 Peach St.

Federal Hill Smokehouse 🍷

Consistently voted Erie's Best Barbecue, Federal Hill Smokehouse presents unpretentious, gratuitous slabs of smoke in meat form. Classic barbecue favorites like brisket, pulled pork, and ribs are met with (actually delicious) vegetarian wings and specials like fried mac and cheese balls and brisket cheesesteaks. There's something for everyone. 2609 Peach St.

Firestone's 🍷

Featuring open fire cooking in an open kitchen, upscale bar food turns into an unforgettable meal. 4823 Peach St.

Odis 12 🍷

Ask anyone where you can get the best wings in town, the answer is invariably Odis 12. 3702 W. 12th St.

Oliver's Rooftop Restaurant 🍷

Voted Best of Erie 2022 in a staggering four categories: Best Patio, Best New Restaurant, Best Waterfront Restaurant, and Best Romantic Restaurant, the people of Erie agree: Oliver's Rooftop is not one to pass up. With upscale fare rivaled only by the view, Oliver's will not disappoint. 130 E. Front St.

Picasso's 🍷

Turning sandwich making into an art, Picasso's consistently delivers masterpieces. 960 Millcreek Mall Blvd.

Plymouth Tavern 🍷

The Plymouth is like the Erie version of Cheers. You'll always find a familiar face alongside a frothy mug of beer and tasty comfort food, like fried pretzels and reuben sandwiches.

Pineapple Eddie Southern Bistro 🍷

Best of Erie 2022 winner in the Best Restaurant, Best Chef (Chef Jean Paul's sixth win in this category), AND Best Seafood Restaurant categories, Pineapple Eddie dominates with their American Southern/Haitian fusion cuisine. The Flagship City Food Hall: Our Community's Dining Room Dining out in Erie recently got a boost of new options with the opening of the Flagship City Food Hall at 22 N. Park Row in 2021. A brainchild of the Erie Downtown Development Corporation, the food hall sits in a completely renovated space, connecting two historic properties that were most recently bars - one with an entrance on North Park Row and one with an entrance on State Street. And inside... think mall food court but way better and totally local. The food hall is proving to be a must-stop destination for truly experiencing what the Erie food scene has to offer: a diverse array of culinary creations that will have you coming back to try something new and different. Here's a rundown of all of the businesses that have found their place within the Flagship City Food Hall. You should definitely set a goal of trying them all. Learn more about all these restaurants, view menus, and order online at: flagshipcityfoodhall.com.

Dina's Authentic Dominican Kitchen
Dinanyili (Dina) learned to cook traditional dishes from her mother and grandmother growing up in the Dominican Republic. Slowly stewed, perfectly seasoned meats including chicken, pork, and beef marry with seasoned rice with beans to make the perfect flavorful dish. Vegan-friendly options are available as well (around here, we call that option the "Brian Special," and it was included on our 2023 list of Can't Miss Dishes). If anyone asks where to eat, just say "Vamos Donde Dina's."

Jo's Brooklyn Bagel Too
The second location of the original Jo's Brooklyn Bagel, their presence in the food hall is a welcome sight. A bagel sandwich works anytime: for breakfast, lunch, or dinner. And with a Jo's bagel as the base, you can't go wrong. Baked fresh daily and featuring unique flavors like Dilly Swiss and Spinach Asiago alongside tried and true favorites like Cinnamon Raisin and Sesame Seed, you're sure to find a flavor combination to satisfy.

Noodlelove
Who doesn't love a giant bowl of noodles? Noodlelove embraces that universal enchantment with their fully customizable, totally craveable noodle bowls. Inspired by the Korean-American heritage of founder Natalie Camerino - at Noodlelove you pick your noodle, protein and vegetables, sauce flavor, and crunch factor to create a bowl that is totally, 100 percent yours. OR you can choose from their scrumptious Chef Selections menu instead.

North Row Philly
We may not be in Philadelphia, but the guys at North Row Philly are bringing the flavor of Southeastern Pennsylvania to the Erie food scene. Shaved sirloin stacked up on a locally baked bun, grilled peppers and onions, all slathered in a rich cheese sauce from a recipe that took years to perfect: you've got a sandwich that invites you to dig in with abandon. Tip: be sure to grab some napkins.

Perry's Pizza and Tavern
Perry's Pizza's namesake is our ubiquitous naval commander, Oliver Hazard Perry, who famously implored his crew: "Don't Give Up the Ship." And in that spirit, the presence of Perry's Pizza as a business contributing to the revitalization of our downtown is welcome. Taking up the State Street portion of the food hall, Perry's Pizza and Tavern offers a fully stocked, cozy bar atmosphere in which to enjoy some seriously good pie. Fresh dough, brick oven, with a crisply charred bubbly crust, this tavern-style pizza created by James Beard award-winning chefs is definitely one you won't want to give up.

The Straw Hat 🍷
Winner of 2022's Best of Erie award for Best Ice Cream Shop, the original Straw Hat location has been a staple in North East for generations. Lucky for food hall visitors, you can now enjoy Straw Hat's year-round delights right in the heart of the city. Famously featuring ice cream from the legendary Penn State Creamery, you'll be able to scratch that itch for Peachy Paterno or Grilled Stickies without having to put it on dry ice all the way from State College.

Taste of Love
Taste of Love chef Natasha Pacely feels connected to her family through her food. "My Grandmother always said that good food will always bring people together as long as it's made with love," Pacely said. And love is the first ingredient in all of Pacely's culinary creations. Featuring southern fusion dishes like Garlic Parm Shrimp Boil and Southern Fried Chicken, flavor, family history, and, of course, love makes all the food at Taste of Love special.

Taste and See Fruit and Veggie Bar
Taste and See was an idea born from owner Krystal Chanel Robinson, who was a full-time employee at neighboring Erie Insurance. Wishing for healthy options downtown during her lunch break, this Pittsburgh native decided to make it herself and Taste and See was born. Featuring nutrient dense smoothies and freshly squeezed juices, healthy breakfast bowls and wraps, as well as lighter lunch options: you'll be feeling great after you taste and see.

Mexican Restaurants

El Canelo

Erie's Best Mexican Restaurant can be experienced at one of three different locations, each offering a plethora of authentic and Tex Mex dishes at reasonable prices – fresh, fast, and casual. If you're making a night of it, be sure to try one of their delicious margaritas.

4236 Peach St. // 2709 W. 12th St. // 4459 Buffalo Rd.

El Amigo Mexican Grill

Located in the heart of downtown, this is a favorite weekday lunch spot for Erieites. Not only was it runner-up for 2022's Best Mexican Restaurant, but their Birria Tacos were featured as a 2023 Can't Miss Dish. The menu is ample, so you're sure to find a favorite.

333 State St.

Torero's

Consistently in the top three Mexican restaurants, Torero's offers up fast, delicious, generous portions of your Mexican favorites. Conveniently located on upper Peach Street, it's an easy family favorite.

Coffee Shops, Cafes, & Dinors

Let's be honest. What really gets you out of bed in the morning? Ostensibly it may be work, children, pets, etc. But what really makes waking up worth the effort is that dark, steaming mug of motivation: coffee. And what better way to start your day in Erie than with a mug of a great local brew next to a hearty dinor breakfast (and yes, the misspelling is intentional - here in Erie, it's a tradition based on a mystery). Let's dig into some traditional Erie breakfast dishes and don't forget that coffee!

Flip Cafe

This Edinboro dinor serves up both a scrumptious breakfast and lunch, but it is the mid-morning meal that had Best of Erie voters stoked enough to vote it Best Brunch. Flip's creative spin on classic dinor fare has everyone coming back for more. With vegetarian, vegan, and gluten-free options, there's something to fill everyone up. 103 Meadville St., Edinboro

Gem City Dinor

If you're looking for a modern spin on classic breakfast fare, make sure to stop in to Gem City. Erie-centric decor, tasty smashed potatoes, seriously good coffee, and a charming secret outdoor patio, you'll agree with the majority of Best of Erie voters: Gem City takes the cake. 3545 W. 12th St.

Tipsy Bean

Nestled in the historic Federal Hill neighborhood, Erie's Best Coffee Shop is worthy of its fame. Gorgeously creative coffee drinks co-mingle with sweet and savory baked goods made in-house. With indoor and patio seating available, the Tipsy Bean is a great place to meet up or enjoy a quiet moment alone with an exceptional coffee. 2425 Peach St.

Let's Go for Drinks: Wine, Cocktails, Brewpubs, and More!

Erie County is known for a number of things, but high among them is our idyllic Wine Country, which comprises most of Harborcreek and North East in the countryside and along the lake shore, extending eastward into New York State. There are two “trails” that cater to the fermented and brewed varieties of imbibe-ables: The Lake Erie Wine Trail and the Lake Erie Ale Trail. And for those of you who prefer more mixability to your drinks: we offer a growing number of craft distilleries, specializing in creative and flavorful cocktails. Cheers!

Wine and Spirits

Altered State Distillery

Food Trucks

If you happen to be outdoors in Erie during the spring, summer, or fall (or for intrepid souls, in the winter) you're sure to find a food truck nearby. These mobile culinary carts are ubiquitous during major community events like Celebrate Erie or 8 Great Tuesdays, but can also be found parked along State Street during the workweek, at a local bar on the weekends, or in their more permanent spots (listed below as applicable). Some of Erie's most self-identifying food comes out of a truck's window, so don't let this option drive on by.

The Atacolypse Food Truck 🍌

The Atacolypse Food Truck was born from a love of fresh tacos, and the folks behind the wheel of this wildly successful mobile taqueria bring you the freshest. From your basic ground beef, to smoked meats, chorizo, and shrimp, and including a variety of fresh salsa, sauces, and cremas, this taco truck is a winner.

Bro Man's Sammiches 🍔

Winner for Best Burger, you HAVE to stop in for a Sooner. Or if you're not feeling a burger, you can try their craveable birria tacos. Originally (and still) a food truck but now with a brick and mortar location. 8228 Peach St.

The Big Cheese 🧀

This food truck is cheese-centric and we are here for it! Offering countless variations of grilled cheese with tempting combinations like The Holy Banana (peppers, not fruit) or the Flaming Pickle, and even some mac and cheese "boats" with different flavors adorning the cheesiest mac and cheese around. Come on. Get cheesy.

The Que Abides 🌮

If you're a die-hard fan of the Dude (or El Duderino, if you're not into that whole brevity thing) or not, you'll be feeling as satisfied as a guy who just got his rug back after a trip to the Que Abides food truck. Smokey, fall-off-the-bone BBQ, creative sandwiches, sauces, and homemade sides like gooey mac and cheese will definitely have you back for more. 6990 W. Lake Rd., Fairview

FRESH & LOCAL

We opened our doors in 1965 to sell Meadow Brook Milk. The mission was simple—sell local milk to local people. A lot has changed since then, but our mission remains—to offer fresh food, from local brands, at a convenient location. Thank you for making us your favorite one-stop! Local Grocery Stores

When Erie's neighborhoods were first established, having a neighborhood grocer was the norm. They were everywhere - on busy corners throughout the city, offering citizens on-foot the chance at having fresh produce, meats, baked goods, etc. for daily use. While the modern age has given us the convenience of massive, fully stocked, efficient supermarkets, there are still a few holdovers from that bygone era of small markets dispersed throughout the city. Additionally the New American population has created their own community grocery store networks, similar to those that were so ubiquitous a century ago. If you're looking for a different grocery experience, start small and stay there with the following neighborhood grocers.

Erie Food Co-Op

Voted Best Health Food Store and Best Place for Vegan Food, the Erie Food Co-Op offers high quality, organic, and all-natural produce, bulk grains and spices, local eggs and dairy products, and a full-scale deli offering freshly prepared lunch items, juices, smoothies, soups, and baked goods. With two locations, each bringing unique vibes, the Co-Op is a great place to stop and shop.

Urbaniak Brothers Quality Meat

Don't let the name fool you: the Urbaniak brothers started out and continue to excel in the meat market, but their store offers a wide variety of goods. In addition to the full butcher shop, house smoked bacon, sausages, and fish, and an impressive deli counter, they also offer a fresh produce section, homemade canned goods (including their famous horseradish), a fresh fish counter, and a bakery (with goods supplied by Herb & Honey). Shopping at Urbaniak's is a real experience, and one not to be missed.

Bello's Market

A mainstay in the Colony Plaza, Bello's Shur-Fine Market is a fully functioning grocery store with some of the best, most affordable meats in Erie. Produce and grocery staples alongside a deli with fresh offerings, Bello's is a clear Erie favorite.
2650 W. 8th St.

Gordon's Butcher and Market

Founded in the 1980s, Gordon's Butcher Shop and Market has been serving Erie for over 40 years. And while their business model has adapted with the times, their commitment to quality service and sourcing the highest quality meats remains unchanged. With two convenient locations to serve Erie, and in partnering with Firestones and Paris Cap & Cork, Gordon's provides their famous "Erie Boxes" to give out-of-towners a taste of that which makes Erie unique, Gordon's is a nose to tail success.

Think Globally, Learn Locally

The Jefferson Educational Society (JES) describes itself as Erie's Think Tank, and for good reason. Continually promoting creative problem-solving to local and global issues, the organization has made a mark on the Erie community through their well thought out programming, events, and outreach.

And this de facto local think tank is celebrating its 15th Anniversary this year. Throughout those 15 years, the JES has been (according to their mission statement) "dedicated to promoting civic enlightenment, and driving community progress for the Erie region through the study, research, and discussion of ideas and events that have influenced the human condition."

The organization accomplishes this mission through various programs (like the Jefferson Civic Leadership Academy, which teaches Erieites ages 25-45 ways to make an impact on our local community), events (like the annual Global Summit, which brings speakers from around the world to Erie for months of open-to-the-public educational opportunities), and publications (including books, essays, online documents, and the long-running Journal of Erie Studies).

While the JES has their home campus in an adaptively reused synagogue at 3207 State St., they have expanded their reach throughout the years to include events at participating community venues, hosting satellite programs across Erie County. Upcoming events include venues like the Erie Center for Arts and Technology on Erie's east side and the Corry Higher Education Council.

To celebrate their milestone this year, the JES is hosting a 15th Anniversary Gala at Erie's Bayfront Convention Center on June 10. This event will acknowledge and discuss all the ways the JES has impacted the Erie community throughout the past decade and a half, and will feature one of America's most prominent political commentators, David Brooks as their keynote speaker.

To read through the hundreds of archived publications, watch their digitally recorded programs, to learn more about upcoming events and programs including the 2023 Global Summit lineup, or to learn how to become involved in the Civic Leadership Academy, visit jeserie.org.

Planning Your Presque Isle Getaway 2023

There's a reason Presque Isle State Park is the most visited park in Pennsylvania. It offers a complete range of attractions: beaches, forested trails, diverse recreational opportunities, and stunning natural beauty. Millions visit the park each year, but even on the most crowded beach weekend, quiet corners can be found and explored.

This recurved sandspit has six discrete ecological zones – the shoreline, sand plains and new ponds, dunes and ridges, old ponds and marshes, thickets and sub-climax forests, and climax forests. Because of the diverse habitats, Presque Isle is home to more than 100 rare species of plants and animals, more than any other area of comparable size in Pennsylvania.

Birding enthusiasts come from all over the world to this Important Bird Area (IBA) as designated by the Audubon Society. More than 340 species of birds have been recorded at the park, including state and federally endangered birds like the piping plover, which have again started nesting at Gull Point.

Rightly known as a beach destination, Presque Isle's lakeside boasts seven miles of sandy shoreline. Visit Beach 6 for a game of beach volleyball, pack a picnic for Beach 7, or stop by the western end of Beach 10 (aka Sunset Point) to see kites swirl in the sky. Swimming is permitted only at the eight guarded beaches from Memorial Day to Labor Day. But come back in winter to see the impressive ice dunes that protect the shoreline from winter storms.

The waters of Presque Isle Bay and the lake offer abundant opportunities to play. Registered motorboats and jet skis are both permitted, although no internal combustion engines are allowed in the interior lagoons. However, you're welcome to rent a canoe or kayak from the Presque Isle Canoe and Boat Livery or enjoy any of several daily free pontoon boat tours. Depending on wind conditions, the waters may be ideal for sailboarding, skimboarding, paddleboarding, and even surfing.

As the "Fishing Capital of Pennsylvania," Lake Erie and Presque Isle Bay offer numerous opportunities to wet a lure. Bank fishing is available in many parts of the park and four boat launches serve various sizes of watercraft. Fuel, bait, and food are available at the Marina. Anglers can also try their luck on the frozen bay in winter, too.

The 13.5-mile Karl Boyes Multi-purpose National Recreation Trail winds all the way around the park and is utilized by walkers, joggers, cyclists, surreys, and inline skaters. Bike and surrey rentals are available at the concession in the Waterworks area.

In the interior are 11 miles of hiking trails. Watch beavers tend their lodges, or find deer, mink, and about eight species of turtles. Be prepared for ticks by wearing long pants with your socks tucked and keep the bug repellent handy. For adventurous souls, a walk out to the natural area of Gull Point is a must. Views from the observation platform include newly forming sand plains and the eastern end of Erie's cityscape and bay. In winter, these trails become cross-country skiing or snowshoeing pathways or just a tranquil walkway through a sleeping forest.

History buffs can learn more about Erie's part in the war of 1812 at the Perry Monument, where Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry's fleet overwintered in 1812-1814. Be sure to discover why the adjacent water to Misery Bay is called Graveyard Pond. Near the monument you can also catch a ride on the 65-foot Great Lakes vessel Lady Kate, which offers a 14-mile, 90-minute narrated tour that ventures out onto the open waters of Lake Erie.

The Presque Isle Lighthouse, which went into service in 1873, offers tours that explain the long history of the house and keepers (May-September), as well as a gift shop. A smaller beacon, the Erie Land Lighthouse, exists on the north channel.

Presque Isle recently celebrated its 100th Anniversary, having been set aside as a state park in 1921. Come see this enduring treasure.

Local Birding Hotspots

If you enjoy bird watching, whether casually noticing the birds around you or intensely seeking them out with gear, maps, and guides in tow, Erie might just be your bird watching heaven. With our unique positioning on the lake, Erie is a great stopping place for migrating birds of all sorts as well as those native species that call Erie home year round. For more information on bird watching in Erie, please visit the Erie Bird Observatory at eriebirdobservatory.org.

Presque Isle State Park

The crown jewel of birding in Erie is Presque Isle State Park, a 3,200-acre recurved sandspit jutting out into Lake Erie, and forming Erie Bay on which the city of Erie sits. With seven types of habitats, the park welcomes a wide variety of avian life at all times of the year.

Within Presque Isle, great spots for bird watching include:

Fry's Landing, Pine Tree trail and Dead Pond trail (especially the area around Thompson Circle). Graveyard Pond and Long Pond trails have access to the lagoon system for waders in the spring, summer, and fall and waterfowl in fall, winter, and spring. Gull Point, a designated natural area, is partially closed April 1 through Oct. 31 but there is a roped trail leading to an observation deck for spotting migrating and nesting shorebirds. In winter, snowy owls may also be found at Gull Point and sometimes on the beaches and breakwaters of the park. For a full map of the trails at Presque Isle, visit: dcnr.pa.gov 301 Peninsula Dr.

Erie Bluffs State Park

A good variety of wood war-

Dean Zeller

blers, thrushes, and other forest birds use this park for resting and feeding during spring and fall migrations just as they use Presque Isle. The former agricultural field in the park – currently being restored into black oak woodland/savannah and Great Lakes region sand barren ecosystems—hosts grassland birds like vesper, Savannah sparrow, and bobolink in the nesting season, and winter species such as horned larks, snow buntings, and Lapland longspurs. A highlight is large colonies of bank swallows along the steep lake banks. 11100 W. Lake Rd., Lake City

Edinboro Lake

In southern Erie County is Edinboro Lake, a 245-acre lake which has two established beach areas with public access to the lake. As of this writing, there have been 244 different species of birds observed at the lake including wading and waterbirds like spotted sandpipers, grebes, mergansers, and cormorants, songbirds like bobolinks, orioles, and larks, as well as predators like owls, kestrels, and hawks. Come for the beach, stay for the birds. 12690 Edinboro Rd., Edinboro

Pymatuning State Park

About an hour's drive southwest, and you'll find this vast human-made waterway known for having the largest concentration of bald eagles in Pennsylvania. Besides these majestic birds, one can find plentiful waterfowl and gulls fall through spring (depending on the ice cover). Nearby, at what birders call Miller's Pond, a nice variety of shorebirds can be found in spring and fall migration. Game lands nearby provide habitat for sandhill cranes and other grassland-loving birds. 2660 Williamsfield Rd., Jamestown, Pa.

Past Times Arcade

June marks the grand opening of a brand new retro pinball and video arcade in Girard, Ohio. With over 300 pinball machines and 150 classic arcade games – many of which are rare imported vintage games – it will provide more than enough fun and entertainment for the whole family. It is also home to the Holy Grail Video Game Store.

419 N. State St., Girard, Ohio

Riverside Golf Course

Head south to Cambridge Springs and experience the historic and newly renovated Riverside Golf Course. With new ownership in 2021, enjoy the improvements to the course (including a new golf cart fleet and Finn Cycles) and then swing into their restaurant The Rambler, themed after Leon Ray Livingston, the self-proclaimed "King of the Hoboes," whose travels took him through his favorite stopping ground of Cambridge Springs before eventually settling in Erie.

24527 US Hwy. 6 & 19, Cambridge Springs

The Oil Region

One could make a day out of simply driving around Titusville (or nearby Oil City and Franklin) and looking at the historic homes.

A short drive east of Erie takes you to Chautauqua Lake (top) in Western New York for boating, fishing, and water recreation, while about an hour's drive west of Erie lands you in the small resort village of Geneva-on-the-Lake, Ohio (bottom right).

History buffs can also make a day out of visiting the Drake Well Museum & Park, Tarbell House, and Pithole Center, while also enjoying a train ride, nature trails, and the small-town feel of the region. Snag a bite to eat at Titusville Iron Works and, if you decide to stick around for another day, book a room in the unique Caboose Motel – inside a renovated caboose car.

Linesville Spillway

If you're already familiar with the spillway at Pymatuning State Park, you might take for granted that it is absolutely one of the strangest, yet most mesmerizing roadside attractions in America. For many, throwing bread to the thousands of carp (and birds looking to snag it out of the air) is a childhood rite-of-passage. That's about it for the spillway, so to make a day out of it, be sure to visit one or all of the many nearby small towns such as Conneaut Lake, Andover, or Jamestown.
